Item No.	Subject of Discussion	Resolution/Action Taken
4.	Introduction and Affiliation Process of New Government-Appointed Professors.	The Chairperson formally welcomed the three new government-appointed professors: Dr. Bhavnaben M. Mehta, Dr. Ram L. Visana, and Dr. M. Sohail G. Mulla . The committee resolved that the affiliation process with IITE University for these professors would be expedited immediately by the Coordinator.
5.	Faculty Integration and Responsibilities.	Subjects were assigned according to the IITE syllabus: Dr. Mehta (Gujarati), Dr. Visana (Social Science), and Dr. Mulla (Maths). All new professors were assigned roles within the institutional committees and directed to begin teaching immediately.
6.	Probationary Requirements for New Professors.	The committee mandated that the new professors must complete the required five-year probationary period . They must also successfully pass the mandated Gujarati, Hindi, and CCC+ necessary examinations within the stipulated time, and actively participate in at least one Faculty Development Program (FDP) per semester.
7.	Review and Finalization of Institutional Policies.	A review was conducted on the core institutional policies. It was resolved that the college's emphasis on Moral and Ethical Values and the implementation of a strict Student & professor Dress Code (to be enforced by Mr. Bhavin D. Padvi) would be reinforced across all departments, and participation in college activities is mandatory for all faculty and students.
8.	Finalization of the Academic Calendar and Quality Initiatives for AY 2022-23.	The calendar was finalized, focusing on normalizing all activities post-pandemic. Quality Initiatives include organizing a state-level seminar on Value Education and mandatory weekly meetings of the new Research Cell . The calendar and initiatives were approved .
9.	Matters presented from the Chair/Any Other Matter (AOB).	Dr. Raisingbhai Z. Chaudhari (Alumni) proposed starting a formal mentorship program linking new students with the new, highly qualified faculty, which was accepted by the committee.
